Baton Rouge, LA — The Baton Rouge Kennel Club is pleased to announce that member Katie Coleman and her 20 month old Flat-Coated Retriever “Annabel” (Shasta's Stoney Castle By the Sea At K&L, DM, CGC, CA) have received not 1, but 3 invitations to attend the prestigious AKC/Eukanuba National Championship show. The winning pair will compete in National Dock Diving, Air Retrieve, and National Owner Handler.

Katie is a veterinary technician and BRKC board member. She personally trains and handles her dogs as well as volunteers her time and knowledge at community canine events. An exemplary sportswoman, we wish Katie the very best of luck.

About the AKC/Eukanuba National Championship

The AKC/Eukanuba is one of the world's premier dog events annually showcasing top national and international dogs in a variety of competitions. Dogs receiving invitations must qualify at the highest level of their sport. The televised event will be held in Orlando, Florida this December. For questions regarding the show, email Invitational@akc.org.

About the Baton Rouge Kennel Club

The Baton Rouge Kennel Club is an AKC all-breed club serving the greater Baton Rouge area. Established in 1942, members include a diverse and dedicated group who participate in a wide variety of sports such as conformation, agility, obedience, and lure coursing. The club hosts educational lectures, supports multiple community and humane initiatives, holds all-breed conformation shows, advocates on behalf of dogs and dog owners, and educates the public on responsible dog ownership.
